The Crucible: Act Two Quotation Journal

Directions: For each quotation from Act Two of The Crucible, write a response discussing its significance. Be sure to include who is speaking, to whom they are speaking, what events are occurring at the time the passage is spoken, and why it is important.

A. “It’s winter in here yet” (Miller 57).

B. “You forget nothin’ and forgive nothin’. Learn charity, woman... I have not moved from there to there without I think to please you, and still an everlasting funeral marches around your heart...” (Miller 60).

C. "I am a good woman, I know it; and if you believe I may do only good work in this world, and yet be secretly bound to Satan, then I must tell you sir, I do not believe it... If you think that I am [a witch], then I say there are none" (Miller 75).

D. "We are what we always were in Salem, but now the little crazy children are jangling the keys of the kingdom, and common vengeance writes the law" (Miller 82).
